SMITH & WARREN
BUILT TO LAST A LIFETIME

CUSTOM BADGES: Smith & Warren/Everson Ross is a leading manufacturer of custom badges and insignia for the law enforcement, fire, emergency services and security communities. Choose from hundreds of standard badge styles and centers. Smith & Warren/Everson Ross will work with your department, agency or company to design your own custom badge or center design.

STOCK BADGES: Smith & Warren/Everson Ross has a complete line of stock badges as well as semi-stock badges and insignia. Semi-stock badges allow you to add engraving into certain panels (i.e. shield number, permit number, license number, etc.) Stock badges are well priced and ready for immediate delivery.

NAMEPLATES & TIE BARS: Smith & Warren/Everson Ross has a comprehensive line of nameplates and tie bars. Nameplates are available in plated and non-plated finishes. Tie Bars are available in varying sizes with or without seals.

COLLAR LETTERS: Smith & Warren/Everson Ross offers the best service in custom collar letters as well as the most competitive prices in the industry. Custom letters and numbers available in three sizes.

COLLAR & RANK INSIGNIA: Smith & Warren/Everson Ross has an extensive line of high quality collar and rank insignia.

BADGE ACCESSORIES: Smith & Warren/Everson Ross offers the widest selection of recessed cut-outs in a variety of badge case styles in the industry. Our badge cases are designed and manufactured from the highest quality materials for excellent appearance and long wear. Lucite badge holders are available in two sizes to accommodate a badge and one or two nameplates as needed.
